University of Montana

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful Western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks.

Four wilderness areas are located nearby Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September, 1895, with fifty students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from fifty students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 8,376 and approximately 450 fulltime state supported faculty positions.

Throughout its history, the University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor's degrees in 58 fields. It offers master's degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The College also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

Seven professional schools complete the academic program—Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

The aim of the University is to provide its students with a relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

IN MEMORY OF
Allan "Westby" Nielsen
1957-1979

A Player To Remember

His shot was as straight as his character. Allan "Westby" Nielsen was a winner both on and off the court.

Al was a second team All-Big Sky Conference pick both his junior and senior seasons at the University of Montana.

It was a fatal summer morning which took Al away from his wife Vicki, friends, family and young son, Jesse. He was killed in a construction accident near St. Regis, Montana. He died Saturday, June 30th, 1979.

Nicknamed "Westby" by his teammates and the Grizzly coaching staff, UM's 1978-79 Most Valuable Player finished his four-year career as one of the top career and single season scoring leaders.

He finished his career with 774 points, ranking him 16th. His 375 points last season ranked him among the conference leaders, and first for UM.

UM's co-captain last season along with center John Stroeder, he came to Montana after an outstanding prep career at Westby High School. He averaged 30 points and 20 rebounds a game, leading Westby to the State Class C title. He was an all-state, all-conference player that season (1974-75).

Among other honors he earned while wearing the copper, silver and gold of the Grizzlies were being selected: All-Big Sky Conference tourney team and all tourney in the KOA Classic played in Billings.

Al, who played at 6-6, 195 pounds, was planning to finish his Health/Physical Education major at UM during the fall quarter of 1979.

In his memory, Stroeder will wear his old number — 32. UM coach Mike Montgomery has renamed the "Coaches' Award" which goes to the player who best represents Grizzly basketball, "The Allan Nielsen Award."

It will be an award any Montana player will be proud to receive.

DEDICATION

In our day-to-day dealing with athletes we meet all types of people. I had the pleasure of traveling with the Grizzly basketball team and got to know several members of the team. Allan Nielsen was one of them. He could play the game of life as well as he could shoot a jump shot. It was a privilege to have known the athlete, student and person. I wish to dedicate this media guide to his family, friends, and especially to his wife Vicki and son, Jesse.

Mike Montgomery
Head Coach

Mike Montgomery begins his second season as head coach at the University of Montana. He served as assistant coach to Jim Brandenburg for two seasons at UM.

Prior to coming to UM, Mike spent three years as assistant at Boise State University. He has nine years of major college experience.

Montgomery has also served in coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State University, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

Offensively, Montgomery likes to employ the fast break, "and use a structured, early offense, designed for people who can shoot the ball. I stress high-percentage shots, tough rebounding and a disciplined style of play."

On the defensive side, Montgomery likes his players to play a tough, physical style, "and make the offense beat us, and not help them by breaking down to give up the easy shot."

Montgomery uses several defensive looks, depending on his opponent's strong and weak points.

The 32-year-old is especially excited to start this season in Adams' Field House. "The Grizzlies have great fan interest, the best in the Big Sky and I'm anxious to get the season underway, as I'm sure our 'sixth man' — the fans are."

A native of Long Beach, California, Montgomery went to Long Beach State where he played basketball for four years and volleyball and rugby for two years. He graduated in 1968 with a degree in Physical Education. He earned his Master's degree in Physical Education from Colorado State University.

Mike remains active in sports and enjoys golf, racquetball and tennis. He recently married the former Sarah Browne.

Stew Morrill came to the University of Montana last year from Gonzaga University, where he was an assistant coach for three seasons.

As a player at Gonzaga he was named first team All-Big Sky Conference his senior season in 1973-74. He was also picked as Gonzaga's team captain and most valuable player. Prior to playing at Gonzaga he played at Ricks College, where he scored 23 points a game as a sophomore, and was a Junior College All-American.

Morrill, 26, will assist in scheduling and recruiting as well as aid coach Mike Montgomery in coaching duties.

Prior to coming to UM, Morrill was coach Adrian Buoncristiani's first assistant and recruiting coordinator at Gonzaga. He was a graduate assistant in 1975-76.

Morrill played one season of professional basketball for a Division I team in Bordeaux, France. After a few months with the team, he was named player-coach.

Stew earned nine letters in basketball, football and track at Provo High School in Provo, Utah.

He is single.

Stew Morrill
Assistant Coach

Scott Hollenbeck
Assistant Coach

Scott joined the University of Montana basketball staff last year after three successful seasons of coaching at the high school level.

As a head basketball coach at Frenchtown High School in Frenchtown, Montana, Hollenbeck, nicknamed "Holly," compiled a 55-20 record. His prep team made two appearances in State tournaments. In 1977 his Frenchtown High team placed fifth in the Class "C" tourney held in Helena.

Not only did Scott organize and coordinate the high school program at Frenchtown, but he also served as athletic director, which involved scheduling, travel arrangements and budgeting.

Scott played for the Grizzlies from 1970-74 at forward, and was UM's backup center, playing primarily in a reserve role.

His function as assistant basketball coach at UM is to serve as junior varsity head coach, as well as aid in recruiting and assisting in scheduling along with coach Morrill.

Last year his JV team had a 9-7 record.

He is a 1974 graduate of UM, with a degree in Physical Education.

Scott, 27, is married, and his wife's name is Jody.

He is a 1957 graduate of USC where he lettered in both track and cross country. He earned a master's degree from USC in 1958. He is considered one of the nation's outstanding distance coaches.

The 1979-80 Grizzlies

1979-80 Grizzly Outlook

Improved team speed and overall depth should make the Grizzlies contenders in the Big Sky Conference once again this season.

Second-year coach Mike Montgomery guided his University of Montana team to a 14-12 regular-season record, and 7-7 in the conference, which was good enough to qualify them for the postseason, four-team playoffs.

UM finished the season ranked fourth nationally in total defense, allowing only 60.3 points a game.

The defensive-minded Grizzlies set a Big Sky record in defense, breaking their own mark of 62.2, set in 1972-73. Montana had led the conference in defense the last eight seasons in-a-row.

Montana will also be making a bid at breaking the BSC record in most consecutive conference wins at home. The Grizzlies have won 17 straight. The record is 20, set by Weber State (1967-68 to 1968-69).

Montgomery, 32, thinks his young team, which has only two seniors on it, will once again be in the playoff picture.

"Basically, I expect to be in the thick of it as far as the playoffs are concerned," he said. "The conference will once again be well-balanced, especially with the addition of Nevada-Reno. But, I expect to be able to compete with everyone."

The reason for Montgomery's optimism is three returning starters, six returning lettermen, and a fine crop of recruits.

Leading the way is 6-10 John Stroeder, a two-time all-conference pick. The senior was UM's top rebounder (7.8 a game) and second-leading scorer (13.8 ppg) last season. He was fifth in the conference in rebounding, 12th in scoring, and ninth in field goal percentage (.502), and the recipient of the Most Inspirational Award. He will be backed up by 6-11 freshman redshirt Craig Larsen, who has made tremendous progress in one year, and appears to be the Grizzly center of the future.

At the forward spot, veterans Rod Brandon and Marty Green, along with redshirt Tim Knight, are expected to provide a solid front line along with Stroeder.

Add to that forward-guard Craig Zanon, and the depth of the 1979-80 Grizzlies underneath looks solid. Zanon was the recipient of the "Coaches Award" given to the player who plays the best in every phase of the game. Brandon received the Best Defensive Player award last year.

Returning starter Blaine Taylor is back at his guard spot, as is letterman Tim McCauley. Newcomers Marc Glass and Brian Morris played well in early practice sessions, and should see a lot of action.

Junior college transfer Greg Crutcher and prep recruits Jim Caler, Dave Johnson and Derrick Pope, along with walk-on Richie Edwards, are all very talented players.

"We should be as aggressive and competitive as any Grizzly team," Montgomery said. "With CZ (Zanon) swinging back at guard and forward, Knight coming off a redshirt year, and veterans Brandon and Green, we should have excellent front line depth."

"The entire program will benefit with the addition of our new players," Montgomery continued. "It gives us excellent overall depth and creates an extremely competitive practice situation, all of which will help us be successful."

Montgomery said, "We will use the fast break, with a structured, early offense, which is designed for the high percentage shot. We will also stress rebounding and a disciplined style of play."

Montgomery said, "defensively we expect to be stronger than last year. Defense has won a lot of ballgames over the years for Montana, and this year will be no exception."

John Stroeder
6-10, 245 lbs., Center
Senior from Port Townsend, Washington

John Stroeder will be counted on heavily in the middle this season. He was once again named to the second team All Big Sky Conference for the second straight season.

As a junior, "Strodes" was one of the top rebounders in the conference, averaging 7.8 points a game. He was a second leading scorer on the team last year, and the top returnee in that category. He averaged 13.8 points a game, and his high game was a 27-point effort against Idaho State.

Last year he was the teams' leading rebounder in 17 of 27 games, and pulled down 10 or more rebounds seven times.

"John has been working hard this year, and we need a big year from him for a good season," said coach Mike Montgomery. "He could be one of the better centers in the West this year, and has shown tremendous improvement year after year."

Stroeder was a star basketball player at Port Townsend High in Washington, where he was captain of the team. He also lettered in track and was the state titlist in the discus. He was a prep All-American in basketball. His high school basketball coach was Jim Kearns.

Also an all-state basketball player at Port Townsend, his ambition is to play professional basketball. He is one of the nominees for the prestigious Pizza Hut All-Star Classic this year.

Stroeder led the Grizzlies in blocked shots with nine in 1978-79. He is one of the top UM scorers in one season, scoring 368 last year. He needs only 66 more points to become one of the top 20 career scorers in Grizzly history.

He was named UM's Most Inspirational Player last year.

A Health-Physical Education major, John has shot more than 50 percent from the field the past two seasons.

His hobbies are hunting, fishing and backgammon.

His father is Mr. Tony Stroeder of Port Townsend, Washington.

Birthday: July 24, 1958.

Tim McCauley

6-1½, 165, Guard

Senior from Sun Prairie, Wisconsin

A walk-on two years ago, Tim McCauley played in all 27 games last year for the Grizzlies, starting in 10 of them.

One of only two seniors on the young UM team this year, McCauley scored 131 points last year for a 4.9 average. He was also one of the leaders in assists, dishing out 56 for a 2.1 average.

"Tim is a steady lead guard," Montgomery said. "He shoots high percentage shots, and has good range. He also is a steady ball-handler, and doesn't give the ball up much. He could start at lead guard for us."

"Mac" displayed his shooting ability in the record-setting, four overtime game against Idaho State in Pocatello last season. He made eight-of-eight crucial free throws in the contest.

As a senior at Sun Prairie High School in basketball he was team captain, MVP, all-conference, and the Player of the Year in his conference. He was also an outstanding volleyball player, and was team captain, MVP and all-state in that sport.

His high school coach was Dave Genzmer.

Last season he made 50 percent of his field goal attempts, and was third on the team for the Grizzlies. He also had 14 steals.

He is a Business Administration Management major, with emphasis on insurance and marketing. He was an All Big Sky academic pick last season.

Tim's hobbies are all outdoor-related activities.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roland McCauley of Sun Prairie, Wisconsin.

Birthday: May 22, 1958.

Craig Zanon
 6-6, 190, Forward-Guard
 Junior from Kalispell, Montana

A returning starter, it will be hard to keep Craig Zanon out of the lineup again this season, despite the improved overall depth of the Grizzlies.

"CZ" played big guard for the Grizzlies last season, and started 11 of 14 conference games. He scored 187 points, averaging 7.2 a game. He averaged 2.7 rebounds a game, totaling 70.

"Craig is an extremely hard worker, who should have benefited from playing guard last season," Montgomery said. "He came on very strong for us at the second half of the season. He is a potential All-Big Sky pick this season, and has worked hard to improve his outside shooting."

Zanon was rewarded for his hustling play last season, receiving the Coaches' Award, recently renamed the Allan Nielsen Award.

He shot 52 percent (65 of 126) from the floor last year, and a lofty 69 percent the previous year in limited playing time.

He played for Flathead High School in Kalispell, where he lettered three times in basketball and twice in football. His prep team was the Western Conference champ in basketball in 1977, when he was the captain. That season he was first team all-state, all-conference and all-tourney and MVP in the state tournament. He was also all-state and all-conference as a junior. In football in 1977 he was all-state and all-conference.

Coached by Jack McWhorter, Craig's older brother, Rick, lettered twice for the Grizzlies in basketball.

An accounting major, he wants to be a CPA. He was an All-Big Sky academic pick, and will be a candidate for Academic All-American honors this year. He was an eighth team pick last season.

His hobbies are tennis and water skiing.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zanon of Kalispell.

Blaine Taylor

6-1½, 175 lbs., Guard
Junior from Missoula, Montana

Blaine Taylor is another returning starter, and will be vying for a berth at lead guard this season.

"Blaine is a very intelligent player, who has good leadership abilities," Montgomery said. "He really came on the second half of last season. He has steadily improved, and should help us be successful this year."

Taylor started in all but one game last season. He averaged 5.9 points a game, scoring 159 points. He led the Grizzlies in steals with 19. He was also the team leader in assists with 84.

He had an exceptional game against Boise State in Missoula last season, scoring a season's high 18 points. He was named the Big Sky Player of the Week for his performance in the win.

He feels this year's Grizzly team, "with hard work, and a few breaks, that when this team jells there's no limit to how far our ballclub can go."

A standout for the Hellgate Knights in Missoula, he was all-state three times, and the MVP in the state in 1976. He captained the Knights in basketball his junior and senior seasons. His coach was Russ Sherrif.

He averaged 18 points a game as a prep. His senior year Hellgate was fourth in Class AA. He participated in the Montana-Wyoming basketball all-star game, and lettered in football.

Blaine, nicknamed "Tails" by his teammates, is a Business major.

His hobbies are softball, water skiing and hunting.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Taylor of Missoula.

His wife's name is Annie.

34 Rodrick Brandon

6-6, 183 lbs., Forward
Junior from Norwalk, California

An exciting, extremely quick player, Rod Brandon started a few (five) games for Montana last season, and ignited many a Grizzly rally coming off the bench.

He scored 107 points for a 4.1 average, and had 67 rebounds for a 2.9 average. He also had 17 steals and three blocked shots. He was selected as the Grizzlies top defensive player last year.

"Rod is a very aggressive, emotional player," Montgomery said. "He helped us off-and-on during the season. He had a great summer, playing summer league in Los Angeles against some of the best players in college. That should help his confidence. We look for a good year from him, and expect him to come into his own for the Grizzlies."

At Gahr High School in Norwalk, California, he was all-conference, all-CIF, team and league MVP and All-Southwest. He averaged 22 points and 14 rebounds per game. His coach was Tom Pryor.

Rod's hobbies are hiking, fishing and tennis.

He is a Business Management major.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brandon of Norwalk, California.

Birthdate: January 1, 1959.

50 Marty Green

6-9, 190 lbs., Forward
Junior from Missoula, Montana

A local product, as are three other Grizzlies, Marty Green has shown steady improvement the past couple of seasons. Now that he has been moved back to forward, he should feel more confident.

"Marty has a great deal of ability," Montgomery said. "He needs confidence to reach his potential. He's been getting better every year, and is a strong rebounder and shot blocker. He can score well again zone defenses."

He played in 17 games last season, scoring 21 points. He had a very good game against Northern Colorado, grabbing a team-high 9 rebounds. He finished the season with 24 rebounds.

Green was a first team all conference player, and second team All-State pick in 1977, while playing for the Hellgate Knights, where he was coached by Russ Sheriff. He averaged 14 points and 10 rebounds per game as a senior.

His hobbies are hiking, fishing and hunting.

He is majoring in General Studies.

Marty's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Green of Missoula.

Birthdate: December 11, 1958.

42 Tim Knight

6-7, 200 lbs., Forward
Junior from Riverside, California

Knight adds a double dimension to the UM basketball team. At 6-7, Tim was an outstanding forward at Santa Barbara (Calif.) City College in 1976-77 and 1977-78. Tim redshirted last year.

A rare JC recruit, Knight said, "I was impressed with Monty (coach Montgomery), and the whole program. I was awed by the fan support and enthusiasm. This is a big-time program and institution."

Tim's JC team won the Mission Conference championship his freshman and sophomore seasons. As a prep his Ramona High (Riverside, CA) team won the league title his senior year, and he was the Ivy League MVP, All-County, All-C.I.F. and his team's captain. His high school coach was Paul C. Smith.

"Tim is an excellent athlete, and has the ability to play four positions on the court," Montgomery said. "He is very active, and shows a lot of desire to sacrifice for team success. He may be one of the biggest surprises on the Grizzly team this year."

Knight calls UM's Adams Field House fans the zoo, which "is the most incredible group I've ever seen. I'm an emotional player, and they will really turn me on. I only hope I can turn them on with hustle."

He is an Education major. He participates in bicycling and most outdoor activities.

Tim's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knight of Riverside, California.
Birthdate: December 14, 1957.

52 Craig Larsen

6-11, 220 lbs., Center
Freshman from Aurora, Colorado

Craig is a key member of the Grizzly program, and is needed as a backup at center. The big man was an all-conference and all-state player while at Aurora Central High School in Aurora, Colorado. He redshirted last season at UM.

"Craig is an excellent big man," said Montgomery. "He is a fine prospect, is active, runs well, and has a good shooting touch. He also has a tremendous willingness to improve his game any way possible, and could be a factor for us. He has added strength and maturity, and made tremendous progress in a year."

Larsen said he decided to come to UM over a host of other collegiate offers, "because of fan support, and the school's reputation for team basketball."

Coached by Byron Brookhart as a high school player, Larsen said, "I have never played before a crowd as large as UM gets, but the crowd has pulled out some close games. I'm really looking forward to the experience of playing for them."

He is a pre-Law student. His hobbies are fishing, backpacking and racquetball.

Craig's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larsen of Aurora, Colorado.
Birthdate: April 1, 1960.

22 Greg Crutcher

6-3, 180, Guard
Junior from Cincinnati, Ohio

An unbelievable leaper with excellent quickness, Greg Crutcher could play either tall guard or small forward for the Grizzlies.

As a starter for Cincinnati Tech he jumped center for his team, and played all three positions for them. He led Tech in scoring (17.8), rebounding (10.0), steals and blocked shots. Needless to say, he was voted his team's MVP, and is Tech's all-time leading scorer.

He was a two-year letterman in junior college and team co-captain. As a prep at Withrow High School in Cincinnati he was coached by Junian Holland.

"Greg is a tremendously talented athlete," said Montgomery. "He can run and jump well, and has an explosive first step. He could be a great tall guard or small forward for us. He is a very good open court player, and needs to learn our system."

Greg's hobbies are jazz, racquetball and all kinds of music.

He is a Radio-TV major, and hopes to become a producer.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutcher of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Birthdate: April 28, 1955.

12 Marc Glass

6-3, 180, Guard
Freshman from Battle Ground, Washington

A quick learner, Marc Glass could see a lot of action in his initial season as a Grizzly.

"Mark is a very intelligent player, who averaged 26 points a game in high school and made 60 percent of his shots," Montgomery said. "He can play lead or big guard, and should be a great player in our program."

He was a three-year letterman for Battle Ground High School in Battle Ground, Washington. He also lettered in golf four times and cross country once. He was the captain of the golf team his final three years.

He was team captain in basketball in 1978-79, as well as all-state, all-conference, team and league MVP and team captain. He was also all-conference his junior season. His sophomore team was the conference champion in basketball in 1976-77.

His high school coach was Butch Blue.

Marc is a Business Administration major.

His father is Mr. Earl Glass of Battle Ground, and his mother is Mrs. Joanne Tarmichael of Vancouver, Washington.

Birthdate: November 22, 1960.

20 Brian Morris

6-6½, 175, Guard-Forward
Freshman from Missoula, Montana

A local product, Brian Morris was one of the top two players in Montana last season. He was all-state and all-conference for Missoula's Sentinel High School his junior and senior seasons, where he was coached by Bob Luoma. He averaged 19.3 points and 12.7 rebounds per game for the Spartans.

He was the state's leading scorer in 1978-79 in AA, and was a member of the National High School Coaches Association All-American team in 1978-79, and played for the Montana All-Stars last season also.

"We are happy to continue the Grizzly tradition to try to get the best Montana athletes available," Montgomery said. "Brian gives us a lot of flexibility because of his ability to play tall guard and quick forward. He has genuine guard skills, based on his quickness and his ability to handle the ball. It's not often a 6-6 player has those abilities."

A three-year letterman for the Spartans, he was team captain in 1979. Brian's hobbies are water skiing, photography and golf. He is an accounting major, and hopes to become a CPA after graduating. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Morris of Missoula. Birthdate: May 26, 1961.

44 Derrick Pope

6-6, 190, Forward
Freshman from Aurora, Colorado

A very young player, Derrick Pope had not turned 18 when he began practicing with the Grizzlies in mid-October.

An all-state, all-conference (two years) player for Smoky Hill High School in Aurora, Colorado, there is no telling how far Pope can go for UM.

Named to the all-state team by the Denver Post, Rocky Mountain News and Colorado Sidelines, he was the conference MVP, and led the league in rebounding and blocked shots. Pope, who averaged 13 rebounds a game as a prep, was chosen most improved player his last two years in high school. His coach was Richard Cozza.

"A very young player with extremely long arms, Derrick must learn to play the forward position after playing center in high school," Montgomery said. "He has a lot of talent, but must learn to adjust to our system. He has only played organized ball for two years."

Derrick's hobbies are reading and attending movies. His major is undecided at this point.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cesar S. Pope of Aurora, Colorado. Birthdate: October 28, 1961.

30 Jim Caler, Jr. 6-6, 187, Forward Freshman from Lakewood, Colorado

Jim Caler is the type of shooter the Grizzlies need at forward. He was all-state, MVP of the Jefferson County League, a member of the Colorado All-Star Team, and All-Metro at Bear Creek High School in Lakewood, Colorado. "Jim is another player who had to make the move from high school center to a college forward," Montgomery said. "He has a fine shooting touch. Like all players right out of high school, he needs to learn the system."

Caler averaged 20.1 points a game, and made 53 percent of his shots, to lead the league in scoring. An all-state selection by two publications in Colorado, he was a tri-captain for the North All-Star Team. His coach was Gary Goings.

He was a two-year letterman in basketball, as well as track, where he ran the 220 and 180-yard low hurdles.

His hobbies are water skiing, tennis and listening to music.

He has not declared a major, but is leaning toward Business.

Jim's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James L. Caler of Lakewood, Colorado. Birthdate: February 10, 1961.

54 Dave Johnson 6-11, 200, Center Freshman from Rowland Heights, California

Another big man in the Grizzly program, Dave Johnson could be a standout in the future for UM.

He was the main reason his Rowland High School (Rowland Heights, California) was undefeated and the Montview League champion.

Johnson was team MVP, All-Valley (San Gabriel Valley), and All-Sierra League. His coach was Cris Ritchey.

"Dave is a 6-10 player who needs to add strength," said Montgomery. "We plan to bring him along slowly. With development and steady improvement he could be a great asset to the Grizzly program."

A two-year letterman in basketball as a prep, he was also a letterman in track. He averaged 15.7 points and 13 rebounds per game.

A Business Management major, he hopes to go into business for himself after graduation. He was student body president at RHS.

Dave's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Johnson of Rowland Heights, California.

Birthdate: January 3, 1961.

10 Richie Edwards

6-4, 180, Guard
Sophomore from New York, New York

A walk-on a year ago, Richie Edwards can play the big guard or small forward for the Grizzlies.

He was all-state for AA runnerup Great Falls High School in 1977, as well as all-conference. He lettered three times in basketball, twice in baseball and once in track at GFHS. His prep basketball coach was Gene Esplend.

"Richie is a fine athlete and jumper," Montgomery said. "He needs to learn the fundamentals better to play in our program. As he develops he could be a good player for the Grizzlies."

He was a one-year letterman in basketball and track at Frank Phillips College in Borger, Texas, as well as all-conference in the Southwest Junior College Conference. He sat out last season at UM.

Richie is a History/Political Science major.

Birthdate: December 29, 1959.

The 6th Man

The crowd and University of Montana basketball are one and the same. This is just a few of the screaming Grizzly faithful who are on hand for basketball games in Dahlberg Arena.

"It sounds like an army in here when they get going," said coach Mike Montgomery. "I love it. They are an important part of our program, and mean a lot to the coaches and the players."

More than 100,000 fans braved the chilly Montana winters last season. The Grizzlies averaged 8,268 fans in Big Sky Conference games. UM was one of the top-drawing basketball teams in the nation last year.

The players know what fans like the ones in Missoula do for the Griz basketball program. Some examples:

TIM McCAULEY: "The Grizzly fans distinguish this program from any other in the conference, if not the nation. As a player the crowd is inspiring, and gives me a unique feeling of motivation that makes all the hard work worthwhile."

JOHN STROEDER: "As long as I have been here the crowd has made it worthwhile to play for, and be a part of, the University of Montana."

TIM KNIGHT: "After watching the Griz fans all last year, I'm looking forward to playing in front of them. They are the best fans I've ever seen, or been associated with."

CRAIG ZANON: "The Grizzly fans are the most important part of the entire program. They are the greatest fans anywhere."

BLAINE TAYLOR: "I feel it is a privilege to play before such an enthusiastic crowd."

CRAIG LARSEN: "After seeing the fans back the Grizzlies in the past, I think it's time we brought a Big Sky Championship back here to Missoula."

Big Sky Conference

The Big Sky Conference was formed in February, 1963, when the presidents and athletic directors of six Rocky Mountain universities met in Spokane. The original conference members were Gonzaga, Idaho, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State and Weber.

The conference derived its name from a pair of Montanans and a Washington sports editor. A.B. Guthrie, Great Falls, Montana, wrote a novel entitled "The Big Sky" and Jack Hallowell, former Montana State Advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme as a nickname for the state. Harry Missildine, Spokesman-Review sports editor, picked up the name and in a sports column promoted the name Big Sky as the name of the conference. On February 25, 1963, the conference adopted the name—Big Sky Athletic Conference.

In 1970 the conference expanded to include Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Ariz., and Boise State College, Boise, Idaho. Both entered as football playing schools.

Nevada-Reno became the newest member of the Big Sky July 1, 1979. They will compete with a full athletic program.

Jack Friel became the first commissioner in 1963, and the offices were established in Pullman, Wash., Friel's home. Following Friel's retirement in July, 1971, the offices were moved to Boise, Idaho, and John Roning was named commissioner. Steve Belko was named commissioner and assumed duties July 1, 1977 following Roning's retirement.
